

NEW DAWN

coldrain

Out for blood
Everyday we go digging our own grave
No more acting all innocent
Playing with fire
In the mud
Long lost in the power that we crave
No more thinking we're heaven sent Preach to the choir

Like flowers in the desert
Blossoming in vain
Angels with no feathers
Fallen far from grace
Turning into minded empty vessels
With no better use
Just look inside the mirror
Who should we accuse?

Tear it all down just to say we can
Build it all up just to say we did
To live forever playing god again
To live forever acting like we saved the day

Having fun?
Letting down every one that paved the way
All these broken smiles
Happy now?
Mindless destruction
Endless pain

Always thinking someday
We'll be saved (we'll be saved)
Only thinking about ourselves again (selves again)
The only way to live is change

Tear it all down
Just to say we can
Build it all up just to say we did
To live forever
Playing god again
To live forever
Acting like saviors

We've gone too far
Are we too far gone?
We've gone too far
Are we too far gone?

Will we ever see
A new dawn

Give us strength, give us rope
Give us more than we deserve to hold
Give us light, give us hope
Show us how to overcome this hell

Tear it all down

Just to say we can
Build it all up just to say we did
To live forever
Playing god again
To live forever
Acting like saviors

We've gone too far
Are we too far gone?
