coldrain

Trapped in a place with no sunlight
I wish I could save you
Can't tell between fact or fiction

Your eyes only see what you believe
If not press delete
You write what you dare , not ever speak

You may believe
It's all better on a screen
I'm gonna have to disagree

What the hell is going on?
Live online, telling lies is this right?(Is this right)
What the hell is going on?
Live online, telling lies is this life?(Is this life)

I hope your not miss understanding
It's just gone too far
Sooner or later its too late
There's no escape

You make believe
It's all better on a screen
I'm gonna have to disagree

What the hell is going on?
Live online, telling lies is this right?(Is this right)
What the hell is going on?
Live online, telling lies is this life?(Is this life)

What the hell is going on?
Live online, telling lies is this right?(Is this right)
What the hell is going on?
Live online, telling lies is this right?(Is this right)
What the hell is going on?
Live online, telling lies is this life?(Is this life)
