

Vengeance

coldrain

Rain, rain, come wash away the pain
With demons in my head
Vengeance is the only way
No

We had love before the end
We had trust, belief and friendship
Maybe something more, maybe something less (Less)
This is how I make amends for the light I turn to darkness
Shedding blood till it's done
Rain, rain, come wash away this goddamn pain, pain
Now vengeance is the only way

I'll make you beg, make you pray
Until your heart stops, till your heart stops
You'll be wishin' you were dead
'Cause an eye or a tooth won't be all that you lose
I'll make you pay for what you did

Here I stand, a broken man
Just a ghost stuck in the past
Maybe something more, maybe something less (Less)
In my soul, I know I can try to find a way to heal
But this pain, it tells me where to go, what to do

I'll make you beg, make you pray
Until your heart stops, till your heart stops
You'll be wishin' you were dead
'Cause an eye or a tooth won't be all that you lose
I'll make you pay for what you did

There's no other way
To end this pain and sorrow
Take me to that place
Take me to tomorrow
How could I ever forgive when I cannot forget?
Take me to that place
Take me to tomorrow
Take me to tomorrow

I'll make you beg, make you pray
Until your heart stops, till your heart stops
You'll be wishin' you were dead
'Cause an eye or a tooth won't be all that you lose
I'll make you pay for what you did
For what you did

(There's no other way)
(To end this pain and sorrow)
(Take me to that place)
(Take me to tomorrow)
