Coleman Hell

Take me home
To the great unknown
Where the roads don't go
And you got no radio
On the beach
If we got no beat
We can stomp our feet
We make our own
Drumming and dancing
Up in the mountains
Somebody's chanting
Save my soul
Whoa
Think I need a miracle

Take me home
Take me home
Take me home
Take me home

Take me back
To the promised land
And I promise that
I'll never let you go
Through the pines
Where the moonlight shines
We can make each night
A ritual
River keeps rising
Think I might dive in
Need a baptizing
Save my soul
Whoa
Think I need a miracle

Take me home
Take me home
Take me home
Take me home

All my life
I'd sacrifice
To get back there
For one more night
In the wild
That's where I belong

All my life
I'd sacrifice
To get back there
For one more night
In the wild
That's where I belong

(Take me home)

All my life

I'd sacrifice
To get back there
For one more night
In the wild
That's where I belong

(Take me home)

All my life
I'd sacrifice
To get back there
For one more night
In the wild
That's where I belong
