Coleman Hell

I was like, "Hey, what you thinking?
I wanna know your name"
You were like, "Hey, what you feeling?
I hope you feel the same"

Hey, we were kissing in the kitchen
We were sipping on flat champagne
Hey, you were looking at me different
We were listening to "Purple Rain" on an old mixtape
And we danced around the room, keep spinning
Room, keep spinning around
It was only just us two spinning around

Ashtrays, rosé
Drinking in the alleyway too late
Last call, you say
"Meet me there in Silver Lake"
You lifted me up, swept me off of the ground
Getting used to the spin, now I'm not coming down
It's too late to save me
I'm in love with a hurricane

I couldn't wait to see you
So I got on a plane
Then I had to wait on your doorstep
Holding a bouquet
Hey, and my heart, it started sinking
I was thinking that I took it too far
Hey, and then everything was different
We were kissing on the hood of your car

And I said that I love you, keep spinning
You keep spinning around
And you said you loved me too, keep spinning
Too, keep spinning around
It'll be three years in June, keep spinning
Ooh, keep spinning around
Wanna spend my life with you, just spinning around

Ashtrays, rosé
Drinking in the alleyway too late
Last call, you say
"Meet me there in Silver Lake"
You lifted me up, swept me off of the ground
Getting used to the spin, now I'm not coming down
It's too late to save me
I'm in love with a hurricane
