

Save Yourself

Coleman Hell

If I'm your knight in shining armour
Well I find that kind of hard to believe
Cause I'm a lover, not a fighter
And I like to wear my heart on my sleeve

You don't gotta be a damsel
You can do it by your damn self
Can someone write a fairy tale
Where I'm the one you wanted
Not the one that you need

So you can save yourself
The trouble it takes to tell
Somebody 'cause
You know, you know, you know
You can save yourself

Yeah, you can save yourself
The trouble it takes to tell
Somebody 'cause
You know, you know, you know
You can save yourself

Once upon a time, yeah
You know how the story goes
Can't somebody write
Something more original
Yeah, you don't need to be a king to be a queen
You and me, we're the dream team

I don't wanna be your hero
But I'm gonna be right here, though
Where I'm the one you want
And not the one that you need

So you can save yourself
The trouble it takes to tell
Somebody 'cause
You know, you know, you know
You can save yourself

Yeah, you can save yourself
The trouble it takes to tell
Somebody 'cause
You know, you know, you know
You can save yourself

Save your
Save yourself
Save yourself

So you can save yourself
The trouble it takes to tell
Somebody 'cause
You know, you know, you know
You can save yourself

Yeah, you can save yourself
The trouble it takes to tell
Somebody 'cause
You know, you know, you know
You can save yourself
(You can save yourself)

(Save yourself)
