

Let's buy a house but never own it
A couple cars we never drive
We'll have a daughter and we'll name her topanga
She'll be the one thing we got right

We'll settle down somewhere in the canyons
Sit by the pool and watch the sun come up
Live like ghosts inside of a mansion
Floating through these empty halls

Sometimes you fall in love
Sometimes you fall apart
Sometimes you just fall

Sometimes you fall in love
Sometimes you fall apart
Sometimes you just fall

There is a fire in California
And all your tears won't put it out
Don't tell my daughter, princess topanga
This was the worst year of my life
All of our dreams we slowly abandoned
Look to the sky and watch the flames come down
One day they'll find us under the ashes
At least we got one thing right

Sometimes you fall in love
Sometimes you fall apart
Sometimes you just fall

Sometimes you fall in love
Sometimes you fall apart
Sometimes you just fall

Don't cry topanga
Don't cry topanga
Everything is gonna be alright

Don't cry topanga
Don't cry topanga
Everything is gonna be alright
