

Feels Like Rain

Colin Blunstone

All along the waterfront
Bright light shining on a restless sea
And there's an unforgiving sky bearing down on me
Of faces wet, it's not raining yet

Walking down this road of dreams
I once believed I could touch the stars
And life's been good and life's been hard
Can't help wondering where you are

It feels like rain when I think of you
No matter where I am or what I do
These rolling clouds cover the skies of blue
When I think of you it feels like rain

I loved you then and I love you now
Just like the world getting away somehow
The more things change the more they stay the same
Wounds may heal the scars remain

And it feels like rain when I think of you
No matter where I am or what I do
These rolling clouds cover the skies of blue
When I think of you it feels like rain

All along the waterfront
Bright light shining on a restless sea
And there's an unforgiving sky bearing down on me
Of faces wet, it's not raining yet
