

Back in My Loving Arms

Colin Hay

I wake with the new day
Turn my head to where you'd be
And you could be
If you want me
I shake for my own sake
My heart tells me you'll make a mistake
If you stay home
And you don't phone

Don't worry baby
Everything be okay
Back in my loving arms
Back in my loving arms

I drive into the sunrise
I feel good to be so alive
Want to kiss you
And I miss you
I'm learning to be alone
But my house is not a home
In the good way
That it could be

Don't worry baby
Everything be okay
Back in my loving arms
Back in my loving arms
Back in my loving arms
Back in my loving arms

Get on that plane
And don't think twice
It's time to listen to good advice
And I love you
And I want you
I can remember your every touch
Makes me shiver
Sometimes it gets too much
And I can feel you

Don't worry baby
Everything be okay
Back in my loving arms...
