

Dig Myself a Hole

Colin James

Well the whole worlds in an uproar
People all sing the same song
We don't start messing up you know
We sure won't be along

I'm gonna dig myself a hole
Move my baby down in the ground
And when I come up
There ain't gonna be no one around

Well I got my white canary
I got my ID too
My girl is a wonder, Lord
Now what am I gonna do?

I'm gonna dig myself a hole
Move my baby down in the ground
And when I come up
There ain't gonna be no one around

Well they take me to the river
Across a deep blue sea
And I know she's begging to wonder
What the world's become of me?

I'm gonna dig myself a hole
Move my baby down in the ground
And when I come up
There ain't gonna be no one around

Alright

Well I got no one to love me
All I got is gone
She said she's leaving me and I've gotta leave my home

I'm gonna dig myself a hole
Move my baby down in the ground
And when I come up
Ain't gonna be no one around
And when I come up
Ain't gonna be no one around
