

Hate It When I See You Cry

Colin James

The train is ready to break into sunlight
Heading full speed downtown
But here inside it in the last compartment
Feels like the suns never comin around
But I know my lucks gonna change
Cause were together
Your luck will be the same
You know I hate it when I see you cry
I hate it when I see you cry
Used to be so easy
When were lost in each other
We just whiled away the days
And other peoples troubles
In the morning paper
They seemed a million miles away
Before we knew it
Their luck was ours
And it meant bad news
When I bought you flowers
You know I hate it when I see you cry
I hate it when I see you cry
Hope is rare
So when I feel it I try
To share it with you
And I'll tell you why
Ill never get used to it
And you know I can't lie
Its a fact of life
You know I can't deny
You know I hate it when I see you cry
I hate it when I see you cry
