It Takes Time

Colin James

In time baby, I'll get you off of my mind
But little by little, let my love slow down
But, oh yeah, I know what it means to be alone
Today you're laughing pretty baby, tomorrow you could be crying

You live for today, leave tomorrow on its own
We got a little child, and we try to make a home
But, oh yeah, I know what it means to be alone
Today you're laughing pretty baby, tomorrow you could be crying

There's an old saying, every dog has its day
The good dogs are warning, the bad just fades away
Oh yeah, I know what it means to be alone
Today you're laughing pretty baby, tomorrow you could be crying

Takes time, baby
Takes time, baby
Takes time, baby
