Collective Soul

I can say this life is Much better today Everything turns right if Wrong gets in the way

Yeah I've got the feeling It's something I find hard to explain See I wasn't looking

But girl I'm glad I fell in your way

Then she says oh boy, oh boy Count your lucky stars

Count what you've been wishing for Oh boy, oh boy Count the life you lead Count how you are now adored

I can say the sun Burns much brighter today I can see my path though

Clouds darken my way Yeah I've got this feeling It's something I find hard to explain See I wasn't looking But girl I'm glad I fell in your way

She said she was tired of

Watching me just wilt and bleed She said I'm like Jesus I save those who do believe Do you, do you believe?
