

The mirror shows
Reflections of a man I've never known
His heart and all emotions are in tow
Homeward bound but nowhere to go

Take all that you flaunt
All that I want
Just make this better
Take all that you need
All that I bleed
Just make this better

I'm all around
Floating heavy thoughts from cloud to cloud
Waiting for some knowledge to hit ground
Living in life's lost and found

Take all that you flaunt
All that I want
Just make this better
Take all that you need
All that I bleed
Just make this better

Take all that you flaunt
All that I want
Just make this better
Take all that you need
All that I bleed
Just make this better

Take all that you flaunt
All that I want
Just make this better
Take all that you need
All that I bleed
Just make this better
