Collective Soul

The voice is getting louder
Now here comes the tone
I wish I felt more welcomed
In this home

I opened up some new doors
To show me where we've been
I wanted this forever
But damn, it never ends
Love, sleep tight tonight
Knowing I'm not your man

Some days, I feel special
Some days, I feel cruel
I feel cruel
Guess I'll know tomorrow
The path you choose

I opened up some new doors
To see where we have been
It always seems this moment
Just comes and comes again
Love, sleep tight tonight
Knowing I'm not your man

I opened up some new doors
To see where we have been
It always seems this moment
Just comes and comes again
I wanted this forever
But damn, it never ends
Love, sleep tight tonight
Knowing I'm not your man

Let's all sleep tonight
Knowing I'm not your man
