

Am i here?

Collide

Am I here in my arrangement?
Just some connecting soul
Am I here to remind myself of my philosophy
Try to rearrange things
Eternity and strange things
Written in another life
Trying to escape things
Eternity and strange things
I don't know where my head is
So sacred might need saving
Some comfort never wanting
Try to rearrange things
I can see a strange place
Because a picture tells a thousand words
Picture tells a thousand words
Am I here in my arrangement
Your soul connecting mine
Am I here to remind myself of my philosophy
Try to rearrange things
Eternity and strange things
Written in below the line
Trying to escape things
Eternity and strange things
I don't know where my head is
So sacred might need saving
Some comfort never wanting
Try to rearrange things
Eternity and strange things
Trying to arrange things
Living in a strange way
Trying to connect it I could try
How can, how can
How can, how can
Turning combination
Turning combination
Written in this deep
I don't know where my head is
So sacred might need saving
Some comfort never wanting
Cause I told you once and I said to myself
Don't doubt it I couldn't fool myself
Try to connect it
