

Beneath The Skin

Collide

On the edge I look in touch the flesh
Touch the skin cup my hands time stood still Intoxicate fire at will pulsating through my veins

Beneath the skin skin and bone
Beneath the skin I am alone

Smoldering release, expire
Confined within I walk the wire
On the ledge no return
Saturate melt and burn rising from the flames

Beneath the skin skin and bone
Beneath the skin I am alone
