

Side to Side

Collide

Nothing like turning the page
I want to know
Nothing like lying awake, every breath I take

Nothing like you feel
Lonely, lonely, only, only
I wish you were the one to say
What you were feeling

Side to side
You search and you find
Love to see out of the lines
Locked inside the signs that you draw
Deep inside, I see through it all
Desensitized truth and beyond
Side to side

Unconsciously dreaming too many lost
Unconsciously wondering on and on
Down in here
Turning the pages
Don't want to feel it, I can continue

Close to here

Side to side
You search and you find
Love to see out of the lines
Locked inside the signs that you draw
Deep inside, I see through the wall
Desensitized truth and beyond
Side to side

Deep in the wall unless you can crawl
Got to do something only they fall
Inside all sides, your side
Your side, my side

Side to side
You search and you find
Love to see out of the lines
Locked inside the signs that you draw
Deep inside, I see through the wall
Desensitized truth and beyond
Side to side
