

Will Not Be Destroyed

Collide

There is no guarantee walking down the corridor
All you creepers and dreamers
I know you've got my back

When you're all taken in
By the sound of the waves
Oh, can you feel the tide?

When you're so unconcerned by the time that you have left
Let the creepers in
I know you've got my back
Locked up inside, something isn't right

Everyone was waiting for something
And the distance between
And the seconds have all been silent
I never wanted to leave

Will not be, we'll not be, I will not be destroyed
Will not be, we'll not be, I will not be destroyed

When you fall from within, so little time, let me in

All you creepers and dreamers
I know you've got my back
It's not a crime, the things you said
The thoughts that fill my head, let the creepers in
So hold your heart and my head
The things that you have said, let the creepers in

Everyone was waiting for something
And the distance between
And the seconds have all been silent
I never wanted to leave

Will not be, we'll not be, I will not be destroyed
Will not be, we'll not be, I will not be destroyed

Destroy you, destroy you
Destroy you, dissolve you
I never wanted to leave
I never wanted to leave
