

Change

Collie Buddz

There will be a change
There will be a change
There will be a change
For you
It's for you
For you, for me
We find ourselves in
Why, why, why?
For you, for me
Yeah we find ourselves in
Why, why, why?
Sometimes the sun disappears from me
But I still know it's there
Things will be okay
So lonely when the winter makes you feel all cold

Spring is on its way
Things will start to grow
(Woah)

There will be a change, there will be a change (woah)
A change is gonna come, 'cause nothing stays the same (woah)
There will be a change, there will be a change
It's for you
It's for you

For you, for me
And we find ourselves in
Why, why, why?
For you, for me
Yeah we find ourselves in
Why, why, why?

'Cause the world spin us 'round and 'round
Back and forth, we keep goin' up and down
Just remember not to get mad, it will be all good

Tomorrow's on its way
The sun will start to glow
(Woah)

There will be a change, there will be a change (woah)
A change is gonna come, 'cause nothing stays the same (woah)
There will be a change, there will be a change
It's for you
It's for you

(Woah)
There will be a change, there will be a change (woah)
A change is gonna come, 'cause nothing stays the same (woah)
There will be a change
It's for you
It's for you

For you
It's for you
For you

It's for you
(It's for you)
(It's for you)
(It's for you)
(It's for you)

There will be a change
There will be a change
There will be a change
For you
It's for you
