

Rock n Roll Bone

Collin Raye

First thing I remember, I was standing by my brother
Singing "My Heart Skips A Beat"
It was Buck, Merle, Jones, Cash rattling the car dash
Cruising down a small-town street
Elvis and [?] hearing lots of Roger Miller
Makes a little boy's eyes get wide
Got a big [?] Johnny Horton, Connie Smith, and Jim Reeves
Conway and Charlie Pride

Old Hank was the man, is the man, will be the man
Ain't nobody disputing that
But then I turned thirteen, a little bitty James Dean

I got a rock 'n' roll bone, it quickly came alive
I knew I had to have it for this country boy to survive
I found Chuck Berry, the Beatles, and the Rolling Stones
Yeah, me and Bocephus, we got a rock 'n' roll bone

Next thing I remember I was working in the beer joint
Cut and Shoot honky-tonk dives
It was me and Scotty up all night, trying to keep the music right
Singing "Mama's Hungry Eyes"
Man, it seems silly doing so much Kris and Willie
When the clientele just wanted to howl
But even lots of Waylon could only keep us sailing
For just so long till the natives would growl

Well, the boss said, "Pick it up, turn it up and keep it up
And get the rowdies outta the door"
But then we broke an inner to a bit of Lynyrd Skynyrd
Just to keep Matt on the floor

I got a rock 'n' roll bone, I can't get enough
I know it ain't about to go down till the sun comes up
I found Bob Seger, heard the boss singing "Thunder Road"
Yeah, me and old Garth, we got a rock 'n' roll bone

I love Dolly, I love Freddy
I need it all to keep me rocking steady
Billy Joel, Tom Petty
I think when I was born I already had a rock 'n' roll bone
Bone
Bone

Yeah, I got a rock 'n' roll bone, it's gotta stay alive
I know I've gotta have it for this country boy to survive
I found Glenn and Don's TV mix really turn me on Yeah, I just can't help it, I got a rock 'n' roll bone

Yeah, I got a rock 'n' roll bone, it's still alive and well
Damn sure it's never gonna change near as I can tell
We dig those [?] make them guitars moan
Yeah, me and my brother, we got a rock 'n' roll bone
Got a rock 'n' roll bone
