

Real

Colorblind

If I show my scars, girl would you run away?
If I say I'm lost, would you believe in me?
Upside down inside a world so fake
I just need something real, yeah
I just wanna be real

You ain't gotta do much to lose my trust
I ain't gotta do much to fuck this up
No stranger to a love that's been ripped up, no
Yeah I know that I'm damaged
Say you don't understand it
Say you're already done
Wish it never begun
This is too much to manage

I, I want it like it was (it was)
Before it turned to dust (to dust)
I want it like it was
So tell me

If I show my scars, girl would you run away?
If I say I'm lost, would you believe in me?
Upside down inside a world so fake
I just need something real
Yeah
I just wanna be real

Girl I know you'll be quick to replace me
You're just gonna move on, won't miss a beat
No stranger to a boy who's been chewed up
No

I want it like it was
Before it turned to dust
I want it like it was
So tell me

If I show my scars, girl, would you run away?
If I say I'm lost, would you believe in me?
Upside down inside a world so fake
I just need something real
Yeah
I just wanna be real
