

Turns

Colour Haze

Hey can you feel it
These times tear us apart
Oh and how I fear it
I tossed my chin, a tumblin mind, a burning soul, a crying heart

All the love we shared girl
I know it's me who's wrong
Now, you're alright, you're alright, but I can't help what's on my mind
So hold me when I fall

I'm all that empty
A hole burning like the sun
Space is all so clear now
And fate won't come alone You're alright, you're alright, but I can't help what's on my mind
So hold me when I fall
