

Drunk Girl

Colt Ford

Yeah, she know what she's doing but she act like she don't Once she's had a beer and a shot of Patrón
It's on, yeah she's working it all night long
She don't give a damn if everybody's all a-gawking
She got a buzz, let her body do the talking
Every Friday night in the USA
Here's what the boys say

Hey yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
Bring a little drunk girl out on the dancefloor
Hey yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
To the left, to the right, to the front, to the backdoor

From the east coast, west coast, in between
Big 12, big 10, SEC
Believe, she's everywhere you wanna be
Hey howdy towdy, rocking top, baby roll time
[?] it's a good time
When she drinks like a fish
Makes all the boys say something like this

Hey yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
Bring a little drunk girl out on the dancefloor
Hey yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
To the left, to the right, to the front, to the backdoor

When she twerks, man, it hurts [?] some dirt
Kiss a little better when she gets served
A couple more rounds of Crown
Drunk girl likes to get down with the get down

Hey yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
Bring a little drunk girl out on the dancefloor
Hey yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
To the left, to the right, to the front, to the backdoor
Hey yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
All the pretty little drunks girls out on the dancefloor
