

Blind

Colton Dixon

Walkin' on a tight rope
Down a steep slope
Not knowing where I'm gonna land
Shakin' like a leaf
Trying not to breathe
And reaching for a steady hand

I could fall and lose it all
Or I could just believe
That I am not alone 'cuz faith is more than what I see

Lead me with Your eyes
When I can't find the light
No I won't leave Your side
I'm walking blind

Lead me all the way
Trust is all it takes
If faith is stronger than sight
I'm waking blind
Blind
I'm walking blind

Looking in the rear view
I can see a kid who's learning how to live
But now I see a better me
Waiting up ahead of me
Free of where I've been

So I resolve to leave it all behind
And just believe
That I am not alone 'cuz faith
Is more than what I see (oh!)

Lead me with Your eyes
When I can't find the light
No I won't leave Your side
I'm walking blind

Lead me all the way
Trust is all it takes
If faith is stronger than sight
I'm waking blind
Blind
I'm walking blind

We're living in a world that
Only wants to place its hope in what it sees
But I will hold on to
What I know is true
Faith in the unseen
Yeah I'm walking,
Walking
Blind

Lead me with Your eyes

No I won't leave Your side
I'm walking blind

Lead me all the way
I'm walking blind
