

Devil Is a Liar

Colton Dixon

A lie, a lie
A lie, a lie

I get caught up in tryin' to be something I'm not
To please everyone else
I look deep in the mirror, to find everything that isn't right
With myself

God only knows, I've tried to fight it, fight it
It's just a wolf, who's always crying crying

The devil is a liar
Says he can give you everything that you desire
Everything you want but you'd be playin' with the fire
So don't believe the lie, it comes at a price

Looks like you got somewhere to be
People you need to see, gotta keep up
They say image is everything, makin' it hard to think
That you're enough

God only knows, I've tried to fight it, fight it
It's just a wolf, who's always lying, lying

The devil is a liar
Says he can give you everything that you desire
Everything you want but you'd be playin' with the fire
So don't believe the lie, it comes at a price
Yeah the devil is a liar
Says he can give you everything that you desire
Everything you want but you'd be walking on the wire
So don't believe the lie, it comes at a price
Don't believe the lie

Oh yeah
Don't be dancin' with the devil, don't believe a single word
Cuz when we get to Heaven, we gon' sing and watch him burn (Oh no)
Dancin' with the devil, don't believe a single word
'Cause when we get to Heaven, we gon' sing and watch him burn
The devil is a liar
The devil is a liar

The devil is a liar
Says he can give you everything that you desire
Everything you want but you'd be playin' with the fire
So don't believe the lie, it comes at a price
Yeah the devil is a liar
Says he can give you everything that you desire
Everything you want but you'd be walking on the wire
So don't believe the lie, it comes at a price
Don't believe the lie
