

The Love I Have For You

Colton Dixon

Woke up feeling anxious
Happens on occasion
The feelings I don't deal with Overflowing from the basement
I think I've hit a limit
God, it's been a minute
Couple heartbreaks, couple hard days
Since I paid you a visit

So here I am back again
Askin' how I'm ever gonna make it out
You told me once, you told me twice
You'll say it again a thousand times

With the love I have for you
Ain't a mountain you can't move
In the dark I'll be the light
In the fight I'm by your side
When you're weak I'll be strong
Your hallelujah song
Oh you're gonna make it through
With the love I have for you

Can't hear when the phone calls
Not there when the tree falls
In the same way, yeah, blind faith
Is the end all and the be all
Going through the motions
Missing all the moments
Time flies and like that I'm right back to broken, but

You told me once, you told me twice
You'll say it again a thousand times

With the love I have for you
Ain't a mountain you can't move
In the dark I'll be the light
In the fight I'm by your side
When you're weak I'll be strong
Your hallelujah song
Oh you're gonna make it through
With the love I have for you

No better kind
No greater truth
The love that I
I have for you
It's river wide
It's to the moon
You'll be alright
You'll make it

With the love I have for you
Ain't a mountain you can't move
In the dark I'll be the light
In the fight I'm by your side

When you're weak I'll be strong
Your hallelujah song
Oh you're gonna make it through
With the love I have for you
