

Bailey Jay, promises made
To bring me down to what I am now
Vicious dreams, carve out your name
Endlessly in touch with one another's pain

We don't know how to love
We don't know how to love
We don't know how to love
We don't know how

Bailey Jay, dead ambitions
Bear the weight of everything you've ever done
Use my needs, turn to desire
Honesty bleeds and blurs between us all the time

We don't know how to love
We don't know how to love
We don't know how to love
We don't know how
