

Crystal Ball Broken

Coma Cinema

I can't tell if you're feeling well
Or if you want to die
If there's love inside your mind
I want to make it mine

Feeling like a crystal ball
With bad news inside
If there's love inside your mind
I want to make it mine

If I can't find a way
To let this hatred go
The anger trapped inside my heart
Can only grow
Until I don't know myself
Or anybody else

I can't tell if you're feeling well
Or if you want to die
If there's love inside your mind
I want to make it mine
