

Stupid Blood

Coma Cinema

Apologies to the bitter sea
I gave it the best I had
Drowning in phony sympathy
Until everything goes bad

Stupid blood in a heart that weighs you down
Down, down into your life

Howling out at nothing
As it passes by the house
All the time and money high enough
To see my heaven out

Useless mind learning how to die
Die, die, die in your life
