

Write Something Funny

Coma Cinema

I put my arms around a memory
I see the ways we're all collapsing
The incense of a burning soul
Dying old for Rock n' Roll
This ancient age is weighing on my mind
Drive me drunk across the county line
We know the only truth is entropy
Don't look for meaning in the cruelty

Write something funny, make them laugh until they cry
Burning is so beautiful even when it's you on fire
Write something funny, make them laugh until they cry
Make them laugh, make them laugh, make them laugh
Make them laugh

When you wish upon a heart attack
Wishing the train runs off the track
Wishing the mall would get shot up
Wishing for cancer in their guts
Ill wishing becomes true in you
Blackened eyes crying tears of blue
Don't hate yourself for the thoughts you have Life's too absurd not to laugh

Write something funny, make them laugh until they cry
Burning is so beautiful even when it's you on fire
Write something funny, make them laugh until they cry
Make them laugh, make them laugh, make them laugh
Make them laugh
