

Planet Doom

Combichrist

Burn burn burn, burn it down
Watch it all come crashing down
Burn burn burn, burn it down
Tear it down, this is my battleground

Burning bridges, fueling the fire
Chaos erupts, the flames are licking through
Ember rain, a broken home
Blinded by dogma
We refuse a bleeding throne

Intolerance, like a disease
Choked by hatred, torn by the seams
Afraid of change, you preach to teach us all
A book of lies, for us to take the fall

Burn burn burn, burn it down
Watch it all come crashing down
Burn burn burn, burn it down
Tear it down, this is my battleground

A world divided, haunted by dreams
Behind closed doors, its never what it seems
Blinded by the facts, ignoring the clues

Lost in the web of lies you call truth

Your hands are bruised, soaked in their blood
Your words are poison, intolerance feeds your soul
But I am evil, the evil you know
But I am evil, and welcome to my show

Burn burn burn, burn it down
Watch it all come crashing down
Burn burn burn, burn it down
Tear it down, this is my battleground

Who's gonna fire the first shot?
Nobody gets out alive
