

Captain Quickdraw

Commodores

Hey, good morning
Hey, good afternoon
You're now listening to your Captain Quickdraw
Station KDJ 37-99
We're broadcasting to you from the command module
Commodore steamship in Commodore country
We just unkeyed

Modulating from a real super station
Put together by government regulation
Screaming eagle and a Goldie, 104
Waiting on that skip so we can Go coast to coast

Hey, good gracious alive
Hey, about a break for that first mama one time?
Hey, about it first mama, up there around that Watergate City?
Hey, around that Watergate City, up around the big house
Hey, the big white house up on the hill
Hey, we just unkeyed

Hey, standing by, waiting for your return
Hey, get out of that cotton picker
Hey, cotton picker, get off my ass
You do hear me breaking for that first
Hey, mama, hey, you talk
Hey, when your name is called not before
Hey, we gon' take a stoodby
Hey and listen all over again

Hate to tell you we're in the denial
All because of that doggone had to die
Pump it up and point your beams this way
So Captain Quickdraw can hear what you say

Hey, 10-4, first mama
Hey, 10-4
Hey, we definitely appreciate the comeback
Hey, Good Gracious alive
Hey, 'cause we didn't know whether we were Making the trip, hey, up to your fair city
Hey, but since we are
Hey, we do wanna pass the numbers to you
All the 73s, 88s, 44s

Hey, and Good Gracious alive
Above all, hey, a good day today
A better day tomorrow
And a most prosperous and productive year to come
We just unkeyed

Hey, about that shaggy dog one time?
Hey, we breaking standing by
Hey, cheer, oh, uh, mercy standby quickdraw
Uh, some cotton picker keying up
Cotton picker

All you are is a constant aggravation
That's because of your ale-gating station
If you continue, we will not let you hear
Better still you're on probation for one year
