Commodores

I couldn't remember even if I wanted to
The day I started really loving you
I've been running from myself for so very long
I thought nothing would ever see me through
When I take a closer look into the mirror
Reflections of the good life passing by Winning seems to be an illusion
Or is it that I'm living a lie?

You've got me captured in this warm-hearted feelin' (yeah)
The best thing to ever happen to me
Oh, so wrapped up in desires for the livin'
Once I was blind, but now I see
I wanna thank you, girl
I wanna thank you, girl

If I could relive those moments
Times I thought I wanted to forget (mm)
I wouldn't hesitate to show you
That loving is the best thing, yeah
Hey, hey

You've got me captured in this warm-hearted feelin' (oh)
The best thing to ever happen to me
I was so wrapped up in desires for the livin'
Once I was blind, but now I see
I wanna thank you, girl
I wanna thank you, girl, ooh
I wanna thank you, girl

All I ever wanted out of life was to be free
Searching to find that someone in me
Girl, you came along at the right time
I was about to lose my mind
Now I'm feelin' fine (now I'm feelin' fine)
Just knowin' that you care, havin' you around to share

I'm so captured in this warm-hearted feelin'
The best thing to ever happen to me
I was so wrapped up in desires for the livin'
Once I was blind, but now I see
You've got me captured in this warm-hearted feelin'
The best thing to ever happen to me
I was so wrapped up in desires for the livin' (for livin')
Oh, thank you, girl, thank you, girl
