

Evil Dead

Common Enemy

four close friends in a cabin in the woods on vacation in their search they found a book read the text and hell broke loose there's something wrong they're all possessed they found a book the evil dead are out for blood they got the chicks now duck and run now it's down to one man left the dead watch out he'll have your head
