

Theme Song

Common Enemy

yeah were all friends, when were in the pit got the same goals, same ideas, we know what's right hardcore to goth, punk, rock n roll even emo kids, yeah they cry but, hey, it's all right don't make me say unity, you've heard it all before somehow the meanings lost, and left to die on the floor we have a common enemy your not fooling anyone but your f**king self
