

Beautiful Liar

Common Kings

Seven in the morning
As you stay close to the bed
Let alone up on the dress
She burns her mind

She should take it to the sad man
On the red light pull up bar
The only way to fight the scars
Is through the light

I see her falling down
Reach out and take her away, away

Now I should have told you
But I love a beautiful liar
I know that I fooled us
Now that I love a beautiful liar
I know her mind is alive
When she sells us all a lie
Know I shouldn't do this
But I love a beautiful liar

When the sun is dreamin
Are ya demon slowing gray
As I lying on my chair
I know your ties
See I know that you're broken
But I'm broken just like you
Before your heart turn to stone
We don't think you are alone

I see her falling down
Reach out and take her away, away

Now I should have told you
But I love a beautiful liar
I know that I fooled us
Now that I love a beautiful liar

I know her mind is alive
When she sells us all a lie
Know I shouldn't do this
But I love a beautiful liar

Ha ah ha ah 2x

Killa swag, killa swag that's your sick nest
Makes me feel, makes me feel so much better
Killa swag, killa swag that's your sick nest
Makes me feel better

Know I shouldn't do this
But I love a beautiful liar
I know that I am foolish
Cause I love a beautiful liar

I know her life is a lie

When she sells us all a lie
Beautiful
