Payment Of Existence

Communic

Do you think they could have a secret agenda An iron hand over the last remains of humanity The final breath of life, allusions of the end Are we all part of this scheme? Another coin in payment for your soul Another bone in the lifegiving soil

Reincarnated - as spawns of the darkness

All we crave to passes will leave a hole into deep As payment to exist they lost their soul

Bones buried beneath
We are ... slaves of creation
Reincarnated, a revolution
We are ... merged into perfect form
Regeneration came with a steep price

Into a realm of wealth and comfort

How can we even resist this claim

A manifestation of a perfect empire (your kingdom come)

Where pain and disgrace are absent

Do you think they could have a secret agenda Protect the nation, with hidden intentions, for reasons why? One day when the devil calls your name And when he does you will think of me Another coin in payment for your soul Another bone in the lifegiving soil

As modern Gods claim sacrifice The flames will feed on the doomed Vested interest controls the flow Transaction on the wire

All we crave to passes will leave a hole into deep As payment to exist they lost their soul

Bones buried beneath
We are ... merged into perfect form

Reincarnated – as spawns of the darkness Reincarnated ... Regeneration (2x)
