

Caramel

Conan Gray

One, two

Well, in the moment, you weren't all that kind
You with your wide-eyed grins, all I can see when I think of that time Promises spoken, all coming back as lies
But you with your soft, sweet kiss is all I miss in the back of my mind

Did me wrong in the past
And I know it was bad

But you burn inside my memory so well
You're caramel, you're caramel

Your cigarette breath, thick on your open mouth Maple and amber clouds and coffee grounds when I think of it no w

Oh, and all the nights with your friends around Ignoring me so they won't find out
You can act real cool 'cause it's over now
But man, you cried when it all went down

And no one believed me, you gaslighted feelings
'Til you had me thinking that I was the reason that I was fucki ng losing my mind

It was love at the worst
It was what we deserved

Yeah, you burn inside my memory so well
You're caramel, you're caramel
And the longer burn, the sweeter that you smell
You're caramel, you're caramel

Sweet taste in my mouth
I can't get it out
I want you back now, and we're making out, drunk, sleeping on m y couch
Now when I hear you're in town
I just want caramel
I heard you're in town
I want you back now
Come over to my house, there's space on my couch

Yeah, you burn inside my memory so well
You're caramel, you're caramel
