

Care

Conan Gray

Charlie went to your show
He says he can tell that you're doing well
Finally out of your spell
Now all that I want is just to move on

Life's so much better now that we don't speak
And we felt like strangers in February
But there will always be parts of me that are yours

And I don't cry 'cause it is over
I just don't feel like I could love again
And I told myself that I'm over you
But I care
I care, care
Care

My fault for making believe
Mistook who you are for who you could be
Pretend to hate you instead
Though I won't miss being your lover
I'm still losing a friend

So, I don't cry 'cause it is over
I just don't feel like I could love again
And I told myself that I'm over you
But I care
I care, care
Care

Care
Care, care, care

I'm not trying to say that I want you back
But it's nice to linger in the past
Oh, it's good to know that you're not attached
But why does it trigger me so bad
To see you with somebody
Who is not me?
Yet, you're happy

But I don't cry 'cause it is over
I just don't feel like I could love again
And I told myself that I'm over you
But I care
I care, care
Care

Care
Care, care, care
