

My World

Conan Gray

I've given up on being anything
Romeo, I do not need a referee
Telling me we're just a summer fling
But it's true
I found approval as a remedy
Every fucking person I would have to please
Maybe I got that from you

But why?
It's my world and it's my life
It's my girl and it's my guy
I'll kiss 'em if I might like
I don't have you in mind
It's my world and it's my time
I'll waste it how I might like
I don't have you in mind
I don't have you in mind

There was a time when you were everything
All my self-assessment on your thought of me
Couldn't tell you who I was before
So when
You shut the door and shut the world of me
How was I supposed to know who I should be
If I was no longer yours?

But why?
It's my world and it's my life
It's my girl and it's my guy
I'll kiss 'em if I might like
I don't have you in mind
It's my world and it's my time
I'll waste it how I might like
I don't have you in mind
I don't have you in mind

A full year later you're calling me back
You're saying you're sorry for treating me like trash
It's totally okay, dude, I really don't mind
You got your revenge by being stuck with your life
So, you can keep drinking and living a lie
And talking all low when you're out with the guys
Doesn't matter to me, it won't affect my life
'Cause I don't care anymore

But why?
It's my world and it's my life
It's my girl and it's my guy
I'll kiss 'em if I might like
I don't have you in mind
It's my world and it's my time
I'll waste it how I might like
I don't have you in mind
I don't have you in mind
