

Telepath

Conan Gray

Don't even finish that sentence, babe
Already know how this ends
You say, "We're breakin' up," what a shame
Don't even wanna stay friends
God

It's just so you, you're just so predictable
Won't you try something original?
Old news, reused, that's why I don't cry

'Cause I got a feeling
You're comin' back just like you have in the past
Yeah, I got a feeling
You'll be sendin' me trash you should've left in the drafts
Yeah, I got a feeling
You'll see me moving on and hate that I'm gone
I can see it, you're comin' back
Call me a telepath

Now's about the time the boredom hits (Oh look)
There you are at my door
Drunk and asking me for a kiss
When yesterday you said that you hate my guts
Now you're back in love?

It's so you, you're just so predictable
Won't you try something original?
Old news, reused, that's why I don't cry

'Cause I got a feeling
You're comin' back just like you have in the past
Yeah, I got a feeling
You'll be sendin' me trash you shoulda left in the drafts
Yeah, I got a feeling
You'll see me moving on and hate that I'm gone
I can see it, you're comin' back
Call me a telepath

But, I betcha, I betcha
I betcha, I betcha
I'll call you when I'm cryin', yeah
I betcha, I betcha
I betcha, I betcha
You'll return in perfect timing
And I won't stop you from tryin'

'Cause I got a feeling
You're comin' back just like you have in the past (Woah)
Yeah, I got a feeling
You'll be sendin' me trash you shoulda left in the drafts
Yeah, I got a feeling (Inside)
You'll see me moving on and hate that I'm gone
I can see it, you're comin' back (Oh-woah)
Call me a telepath

La-la-la-la-la-la
Call me a telepath, oh-woah

Call me a telepath
Call me a telepath, oh-woah
Call me a telepath
