

No Rewind

Conception

I want you to tell me
Empower my consciousness
Dice is in your warning hands
Want you to wake me
To tell me this story
I can't oppose

There's nothing
Even now the babble remains
We're getting louder
As to what we fear and own
It's revealing
And it's calling your name carving, charging
Whatever's ever paid

Oh won't you listen child
Seconds of swarming
We glowed
We were so royalty

There's no surrender
If the battle pursues
I do not want a bitter end
No more than you
So i come crawling
When you sputter my name
Deep within
I am guilty anyway

No rewind
Won't save us
The bell
From our indifference
Summer days
So tenacious
Rumble as they blaze
Burning sun
Burning sun
No rewind
Won't save us
The bell
From our indifference
Summer days
So tenacious
Rumble as they blaze

Rise and shine
Amaze me
Rebel and make a difference
Summer days will alight you
Rumble as they blaze

Burning sun
Fast forward
And no rewind
Burning sun

Fast forward
Burning sun
And no rewind
Let them burn
