

Call Me Up

Conchita Wurst

Loneliness calls
I can't fight
Can't stop the echo in my mind
My mind

My walls are up
They're paper thin
Longing for shelter
Let me in
Let me in

We kiss, break up
Get up, back down
Fell off the edge
To lost and found
Lost and found

Why do I need someone
Need someone
Need someone
Do I need
Need someone
Need someone
Need someone
Do I need
Need someone
To be someone

Can you just call me up
Feeling myself fall down
Can you please hurry up
Ain't far off the ground

Try to control
Need to let go
Taken by fear
So insecure
Insecure

Don't know myself
Who will I be
This is too close
Too real for me
Too real

Why do I need someone
Need someone
Need someone
Do I need
Need someone
Need someone
Need someone
Do I need
Need someone
To be someone
Do I need
Need someone

To be someone

Can you just call me up
(Can you call me up)
Feeling myself fall down
(I'm falling down)
Can you please hurry up
(Can you please hurry up)
Ain't far off the ground
(I'm falling down)

Can you just call me up
(Can you just call me up)
Feeling myself fall down
(I'm falling down)
Can you please hurry up
(Can you please hurry up)
Never gonna let you down
(Never let you down)

Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough
Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough
Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough
Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough

Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough
Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough
Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough
Can you just call me up
Never gonna get, get enough of you

Can you just call me up
(Can you just call me up)
Feeling myself fall down
(I'm falling down down down)
Can you please hurry up
(Can you please hurry up)
Ain't far off the ground
(I'm falling down down down)

Can you just call me up
(Can you just call me up)
Feeling myself fall down
(I'm falling down down down)
Can you please hurry up
(Can you please hurry up)
Never gonna let you down
(Never let you down)
