

To the Beat

Conchita Wurst

I see you sitting there and stare
Don't you wanna see the light? Hey
I see you sitting there and stare
Don't you wanna see the light? Hey

There's nothing I wouldn't do
Crazy how many I can still fool
With every little move
I seem to release the beast out of you

Cover my ears, I will still hear the beat, oh
Put me in chains, I will still feel all free, oh
Cut off my legs, I will still walk ahead, oh
Give up on me, 'cause I will still lead

I move my feet, strong to the beat
My hands strong to the beat
My heart strong to the beat
I hear it loud and on repeat
So loud and on repeat
So loud, huh huh

I see you sitting there and stare
Don't you wanna see the light? Hey

Tell me the life of you
Don't take your time, I'm on the brink of Everything I wanted forever
And everything I dreamed of, and you can

Cover my ears, I will still hear the beat, oh
Put me in chains, I will still feel all free, oh
Cut off my legs, I will still walk ahead, oh
Give up on me, 'cause I will still lead

I move my feet, strong to the beat
My hands strong to the beat
My heart strong to the beat
I hear it loud and on repeat
So loud and on repeat
So loud, huh huh (x2)

I won't stop climbing until
I reach the top of all the hills

I move my feet, strong to the beat
My hands strong to the beat
My heart strong to the beat
I hear it loud and on repeat
So loud and on repeat
So loud, huh huh

I move my feet, strong to the beat
My hands strong to the beat
My heart strong to the beat
I hear it loud and on repeat
So loud and on repeat

So loud, huh huh
