Concrete Blonde

Sheep are running scared tonight
The cows are coming home
They cling together terrified
Afraid to be alone
The bees are buzzing around their queen

Waiting for a word
The [Incomprehensible] are [Incomprehensible] the scene
Collectively absurd

They're looking for Jesus, they're looking for more Just what are they looking up here to me for They're looking for someone, they're looking for Christ They're looking for some human sacrifice

It looks like Jonestown
It looks like Jonestown
It looks like Jonestown

They don't know who to run to And they don't know where to go Unless you tell them what to think They don't know what they know

Repeating the commercial Or something they have heard From someone, not they, someone else Somebody good with words

I think they're looking for an answer, they're looking for more Just what are they looking up here to me for They're looking for Jesus, they're looking for Christ They're looking for some human sacrifice

It looks like Jonestown It looks like Jonestown It looks like Jonestown It looks like Jonestown

They are looking for an answer, looking for more Just what are you looking up here to me for They're looking for Jesus, they're praying for Christ They are looking for some human sacrifice

Jonestown Jonestown Jonestown
