Song For Kim (She Said)

Concrete Blonde

Oh, Kim Your diary said The voices calling you from the edge They finally called you away You know I hear them too They're telling me to stay Oh, Kim Remember when We had a million plans And we believed them Angry words ring in my head I'd give every song I got in me To bring it back again She said I could She said hold on, hold out 'Cause it's good She said you're right She said hold on, hold out 'Cause I know that you can fight

You're right again
There is an easy way
Out of this world
I'm staying
I wonder why
It may be all I have
But it's mine, it's mine

I know that you can

She said I could
She said hold on, hold out
'Cause it's good
She said you're right
She said hold on, hold out
'Cause I know that you can fight
I know that you can

She said (Kim used to say) I could (I know you could) She said hold on (Hold on) Hold out (Hang on) 'Cause it's good She said (Kim used to say) You're right (You know you're right) She said hold on (Hold on) Hold out (Hang on) 'Cause I know that you can fight I know that you can.
