

Burning Bridges

Confetti

I'm getting really good at burning bridges yeah
I'm getting really good at poor decisions yeah
I should really think before I talk instead of talk before I think
I better stop, better stop
I'm getting really good at pointing fingers yeah
I'm getting really good at bringing tears yeah
There gon' be some awkward vibes after tonight is goodbye

'Cause I got another bad idea
I probably should get out of here
I'm just a man with an appetite
And I won't take my own advice

'Cause I never seem to listen
I just keep burning bridges
I never seem to listen
I just, I just, I

It's OK if you want to burn some bridges
That's what happens when you fuck with basic bitches
But I'm addicted to the bad and bad decisions
If you need an alibi then I can be your witness
Open up your date and that
Maybe me and you could merge
Then you're gonna find out yeah that I'm a pyromaniac too
Just like you

Don't stay around
Gonna let you down
'Cause baby there ain't no down
Ship is going down
I don't need fix
I just need a quick fix
You won't be missed if I'm being honest
And no I don't feel proud
But this is just for now

'Cause I got another bad idea
I probably should get out of here
I'm just a man with an appetite
And I won't take my own advice

'Cause I never seem to listen
I just keep burning bridges
I never seem to listen
I just, I just, I
I never seem to listen
I just keep burning bridges
I never seem to listen
I just, I just, I
