

Got You

Confetti

Just now I got your back
Don't you forget it shit
I always have
Don't even sweat it

Everybody in the world got struggles
But shit you got it pretty good, stay humble
Don't you dare give me reasons to back up
'Cause I ain't going out on limbs for some bad luck
Say your dreams never seem so far
So I picked you up so you could reach for the stars
If it explodes when it hits ya
I'll pull you down so it miss ya

I don't ever wanna miss ya no
You won't ever have to miss me
So I gotta show them what you're needed for

Just know I got your back
Don't you forget it shit
I always have (You know I always have)
Don't even sweat it
'Cause what you need is what you're gonna get
Just know I got your back
I got you

Sometimes we all need some tough love
I know you don't wanna hear it but tough love
'Cause when you need a check in perspective
I'm here to take the blow so you know how to test it
Through the highs and the lows
We may take a break but you never alone
Even if we skatin' on some ice too thin
You know I got you by the hand 'cause we both gotta win

I don't ever wanna miss ya no
You won't ever have to miss me
So I gotta show them what you're needed for

Just know I got your back
Don't you forget it shit
I always have (Shit I always have)
Don't even sweat it
'Cause what you need is what you're gonna get
Just know I got your back
Ooh I got you

Sometimes you tap in the devil
Feeling your inner rebel
I know you gotta push it to know when
To know when you're hitting your limit
Why you gotta get into trouble?
Just to make up then cuddle no
I shouldn't bail you out this time

Just know I got your back
Don't you forget it shit

I always have (I always got your back baby)
Don't even sweat it
'Cause what you need is what you're gonna get
Just know I got your back
Ooh I got you
Just know I got your back
