

Lonely

Confetti

I heard about Moses in the ocean
But that don't keep me from just going through the motions
She said that's a choice, baby, that's the notion
A combination of some luck, fate, and devotion
What about the right time and place? (You know)
That's just really not always the case (You know)

'Cause I fucked it up somehow
So what am I gonna do now?

Mother nature had a fight
Worked it out with father time
This is how she wants the world
It took some time for me to learn
But after all you gave to me
I can't help but disagree
I'm lonely (I'm lonely)
I'm lonely, yeah

Do I look like Hercules or Apollo?
Loudest in the matching band but never got a solo
One among the millions you're never gonna follow
I can't even roll up my sleeves past the elbows
Always say it's never too late to change (Never change)
But everytime I look in the mirror, it's the same

I keep fucking it up somehow
So what am I gonna do now?

Mother nature had a fight
Worked it out with father time
This is how she wants the world
It took some time for me to learn
But after all you gave to me
I can't help but disagree
I'm lonely (I'm lonely)
I'm lonely

Don't forget about me (Don't forget about me)
'Cause that's a lot to take
And put the blame on me (Blame on me)
That's not fucking OK
You forgot about me to the point
Where I forgot about myself

Mother nature had a fight
Worked it out with father time
This is how she wants the world
It took some time for me to learn
But after all you gave to me
I can't help but disagree
I'm lonely
I'm lonely

Don't forget about me (Don't forget about me)
'Cause that's a lot to take
And put the blame on me (Blame on me)

That's not fucking OK
But after all you gave to me
I can't help but disagree
I'm lonely
I'm lonely

Don't forget about me (Don't forget about me)
'Cause that's a lot to take
And put the blame on me (Blame on me)
That's not fucking OK
But after all you gave to me
I can't help but disagree
I'm lonely (I'm so lonely, lonely)
I'm lonely (I'm so lonely, lonely)
